PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO RE-SET TRIAL DATE

Plaintiff Intermarine, LLC, asks the court to re-set the trial of this case from the current setting on September 14, 2015, to the back-up setting on September 28, 2014. As grounds, plaintiff states as follows:

1. Undersigned counsel Cecily L. Kaffer, attorney-in-charge for plaintiff Intermarine, LLC, is a shareholder in The Kullman Firm, PLC, and does not live in Houston. Counsel is the single mother of an 8 year old child. Counsel's long-time nanny had unexpected heart surgery on July 30, 2015, requiring three by-passes, and will not be returning to work during September.

2. Counsel has not been successful in procuring substitute child care for the week of September 14, 2015. Counsel's usual back-up child care is not available during the week of September 14,¹ and counsel has not been able to make other arrangements.

3. Counsel can procure care during the week of September 28.

4. This case is legally and factually complex, and should be tried by Plaintiff's attorney-in-charge.

5. Co-counsel Sam Zurik, who is a shareholder in The Kullman Firm, PLC, cannot attend trial during the week of September 14, due to the Rosh Hashanah holiday on that date, and personal commitments later in the week.

6. Co-counsel Brendan Greene is an associate with The Kullman Firm, PLC.

WHEREFORE, Intermarine respectfully requests the court to re-set the trial of this case from the current setting on September 14, 2015, to the back-up setting on September 28, 2014.

ORDER

This matter came before the Court on the unopposed motion of plaintiff Intermarine, LLC, to re-set the trial of this case from the current setting on September 14, 2015, to the back-up setting on September 28, 2014. After review, the Court finds that the motion is due to be, and hereby is, granted. Accordingly, the trial date previously set on September 14, 2015, is cancelled, and this case is set for trial on September 28, 2014.
